III. RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

#	TYPE OF RECRUITMENT INITIATIVE (MENU SELECTION)	BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITY
1	Establish an internship program designed to assist members of the community in acquiring skills needed for broadcast employment.	KAKE hosted 7 college interns during the reporting period before restricting visitors at the station the latter part of the year due to high numbers of positive cases of the Covid 19 virus in Sedgwick County. The students earned academic credit from their school and will use the experience to help them obtain a job in the broadcasting field when they graduate. Interns assigned to the News Department were supervised by Assistant News Director, Dave Grant. We had one intern interested in Promotions who was under the supervision of our Creative Services Director, Aaron Lair. The interns' duties included observing various day-to-day activities of the reporters, news producers, photojournalists, and promotion producers. The interns spent approximately 15 hours a week for one semester in their interested field of study. This year's interns were represented by the following schools: University of Kansas (2) Institute of American Indian Arts Baker University Wichita State University Kansas Wesleyan University University of St. Andrews
2	Participate in events sponsored by community groups interested in broadcast employment issues.	KAKE participated in five school-related and community events for individuals interested in the broadcasting field: 1 – February 5, 2021 – KAKE Senior Reporter, Pilar Pedraza, did a virtual Zoom presentation to two classes at Central Christian Academy. Pilar was the sole guest speaker for a 7th-8th grade class and a high school speech class to talk about her job at KAKE and answer questions about broadcast journalism careers. 2 – March 15, 2021 – KAKE Assistant News Director, Dave Grant, participated in a virtual Zoom presentation for Wichita State University's Elliott School of Communications. Dave discussed the Producer role at KAKE and talked about what skills the station looks for in a young producer who wants to get a job in the broadcast field. 3 – June 4, 2021 – KAKE Senior Reporter, Pilar Pedraza, did a Zoom presentation for two English classes at Excel Academy of South Shore. Pilar was the sole presenter and talked about her role and responsibilities at KAKE and answered student questions on journalism as a final on their journalism unit. 4 – June 16, 2021 – KAKE Senior Reporter, Pilar Pedraza, participated in a Zoom seminar for the IRE 2021 Conference on news broadcasting and the pandemic. Pilar was one of five panelists and her specialization for the seminar was on

She shared her experiences and reporting tips, and attendees were given the chance to ask questions about her experiences and role at KAKE after her presentation. 5 – August 24, 2021 – KAKE Sports Director, Chris Lilly, was a guest speaker at Emporia State University’s GOALS class. Chris talked a group of student athletes and shared how the media / student athlete relationship works and discussed job opportunities in the area of sports that are available in the broadcasting industry.
3	Participate in job fairs	KAKE personnel participated in two Job Fair during the reporting period: 1 – March 4, 2021 - KAKE Assistant News Director, Dave Grant, participated in the 2021 Spring Journalism Virtual Career Fair for The University of Kansas. Students signed up for times to do virtual visits to learn about job opportunities and internships available at KAKE. Dave also gave advice on degrees to pursue for a career in broadcasting and offered suggestions on improving their work reel for interviews.
4	Participate in events or programs sponsored by educational institutions relating to careers in broadcasting.	KAKE hosted two students from area high school and colleges for a Job Shadow Day. The students were able to watch employees at KAKE as they performed their day-to-day duties. 1 - June 1, 2021 – A student from Kansas Wesleyan College who is studying journalism did a job shadow day in the KAKE newsroom. The student shadowed Multi-Media Journalist, Jackson Overstreet, as he did interviews and wrote news stories to air in newscasts later in the day. 2 – July 9, 2021 – A senior from Maize South High School did a job shadow at KAKE to learn about job opportunities at a television station. The student shadowed Reporter/Producer, John Hayes, as he shot video and did interviews for a story on 4H participants returning to their county fair after the pandemic. 3 – April 8, 2021 – KAKE Anchor, Deb Farris, was one of the featured panelists for the Kansas Association of Broadcasters’ Virtual Student Seminar and round table event. Students participating in the seminar could ask questions of the featured panel of Kansas’ top broadcasters during the live Q&A session. At the round table event, students could talk specifically with each broadcaster about their areas of interest and job opportunities.
5	Participation in training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.	KAKE Management and staff participated in four training sessions to expand their working knowledge of the industry as well as their growth potential in the company: 1 – March 24, 2021 – Webinar presented by Corey Elliott
